

Resources suggested by a Certified Financial Planner:

- "Planning for the Future – give your child with a disability the gift of a safe and happy life" by L Mark Russell and Arnold Grant This is a very comprehensive and detailed dissertation that encompasses just about everything you could want to know if caring for a child with a disability.
- "Estate Planning For People with a Chronic Condition or Disability" by Martin Shenkman is a nice resource when working with adults or ones' self.
- Thomas M Brinker is a professor at Arcadia University and an adjunct professor at The American College of Financial Services. He teaches one of the courses that are specific to that designation HS-377. It is open to the public for enrollment and if you have individuals that prefer self-study. You can also find Mr. Brinker on a number of different online forums.
